Statutory Maternity Pay (SMP)

You may be entitled to SMP from an employer if you have been employed by the same employer from the beginning of your pregnancy. You need to give your employer at least 28 days notice of the date you want your SMP to start.

Ask your employer if you can get SMP. If you have more than one employer ask each of them. Do this now.

Give this certificate to your employer to get SMP.

If you cannot get SMP, your employer must give you back this certificate with form SMP1 so you can claim Maternity Allowance.

Maternity Allowance (MA)

You may be able to get MA if:

- your employer cannot pay you SMP, or
- you are self-employed or do not have an employer
- you are neither employed nor self-employed but take part in the business of your self-employed spouse or civil partner

If you think you may be entitled to MA, get form MA1 from the Jobcentre Plus claim-line on 0800 055 6688 or if you are Welsh 0800 012 1888. If you have speech or hearing difficulties you can contact the claim line using a textphone on 0800 023 4888. You can also get an MA1 from your antenatal clinic, or download it from www.gov.uk/maternity-allowance/how-to-claim

More information

There are time limits for claiming SMP and Maternity Allowance. You may lose money if your claim is late.
